CALLING ATTENTION TO MATTERS OF URGENT PUBLIC IMPORTANCE

(i) re : Rise in Prices of essential commodities

SRI P. RAMDEV —Sir, I call the attention of the Minister for Food and Civil Supplies to the rise in prices of essential commodities and thereby causing hardship to the general public.

SRI MANIK RAO PATIL (Minister for Food and Civil Supplies).—Sir I make the following statement.

The general price rise in the country and in the State are a part and parcel of the global inflationary trends. It has been mentioned by the Prime Minister of India in a recent press statement that the inflation in this Country is one of the lowest in the world.

The Public Distribution system taking into cognisance the recent trend in the price has stepped up its allotment of essential commodities to the extent possible as indicated in the statement placed below.

There is no shortage of Kerosene oil at all in the State and this is freely available.

If the off take of wheat products has any indication on its availability, the position is quite satisfactory.

With the increased release of sugar to open market from 1.4 lakh tonnes to 1.8 lakh tonnes for June 1981 and the possibility of import of sugar, the open Market price of sugar has shown a downward trend in the wholesale markets.

The high price of ragi is on account of the failure of ragi crop during 1980-81. We have no stocks of ragi available for public distribution. The increase issue of rice will take care of the grain requirements of ragi eating public in a large measure.

During the months of April, May and June, 1981 there was lot of difficulty in lifting of Palmolien oil allotted by Government of India because out of the allotted quantities 2/3 was normally made avail-
